

October 2015
vol. 1 創刊号

ゆーろ・ならじあ・きゅー
EURASIAQ
ユーラシアを「ぎゅっ！」

Using phrase "Euro-Nara-Asia" to co-edit a global trend.

October 2015
vol. 1
Inaugural Issue

Embracing Eurasia.
EURASIAQ
Using phrase "Euro-Nara-Asia" to co-edit a global trend.

特集
近現代を見る視点
戦前日本の分岐点を探る

筒井清忠
荒井正吾
渡邊公太
篠原初枝
等松春夫

李御寧

Topics

菅谷文則 × 姜大一 × 馬家郁・杜曉帆 × 澤田正昭、魯法錫

奈良県立大学

FREE

思想・個人・社会 / 古代オリエント・宗教・文化
ユーロナラジア始動
ユーラシアと奈良とのつながりをめぐる

北岡伸一

植村和秀
青木健
岡本彰夫

奈良県立大学

EURO-NARASIAQ

vol. 1 October 2015

ユーロナラジア始動 / 近現代を見る視点

CONTENTS

Demonstrating a deep relationship with Iran and Japan.
—Shinichi KITAOKA

Japanese reactions against the changing world from 1913 to 1951.
—Kazuhide UEMURA

How ancient Nara became a cosmopolitan city engaged in a Zoroastrianism.
—Takeshi AOKI

An origin of Nara's culture: A Shosoin Treasure.
—Akio OKAMOTO

What points of Japan's views to Asia were taken and how did they change? —Kiyotada TSUTSUI & Shogo ARAI

Japan's the Twenty-one Demands (1915) spoiled all constructive relations with China.
—Kouta WATANABE

In the 1930s, misread a world trend, Japan had gone to stand alone from the world.
—Hatsue SHINOHARA

Manturia: State-building in the interwar period.
—Haruo TOMATSU

How did war join Meiji and Showa together.
—Kiyotada TSUTSUI

AND Two topics

International symposium on the cultural heritage protection of China-Korea-Japan

East Asia Summer School 2015 in Nara

Japan is presently enveloped in a thick, even dangerous, fog, which is obscuring the way forward. It is for this reason that we present these studies, incomplete though they may be, with some content that is still evolving. We need insights that can light our path like a lantern in a wilderness. In Nara, the original archetype that begat the Japan we know today still remains, and may shed light on contemporary issues we face.

思想・個人・社会 / 古代オリエント・宗教・文化
ユーラシアと奈良とのつながりをめぐる
近現代を見る視点
戦前日本の分岐点を探る

Understanding the past failures to plan for the future success.

Nara Prefectural University

FREE